THE PARTNERSHIP
WHICH has existed for many years past between the undersigned and C. G. GRAHAM, under the style of "C. G. Graham," in the Livery Stable on Ann street, in Frankfort, and in other property, real and personal, having been dissolved by the death of Mr. Graham, hereby give notice to all concerned, that as surviving partner I will close the unsettled business of said late firm. All persons indebted to it are requested to make immediate payment, so that I may be enabled to pay the outstanding debts against it.
Frankfort, dec 14 4f. THOS. S. PAGE.

CAUTION TO DEBTORS.
FROM information received since the death of my late partner, C. G. Graham, I believe there are numerous outstanding debts due to the late firm, for which notes were given payable to "C. G. Graham" (which was the style of the firm), but which have not been paid. I therefore warn all persons thus indebted not to make payment to any person other than myself or my authorized agent. If they do, they will act in their wrong, and may be compelled to pay again to the surviving partner, who alone is authorized to collect said debts.

The Thoroughbred Young Horse, JAPHET,
THE winner of seven first prizes in the rings for thoroughbred horses, at the Lexington, Louisville, Shelbyville, and Eminence Fairs—two of them being State Fairs—will be permitted to serve mares at $15 the season, with the privilege of returning the next year a mare not proving to be in foal.
The blood of Japhet is of the most distinguished strain, uniting from his immediate ancestors the blood of Sir Archie, Medoc, Imported Bedford, Blomede, and Melley, and tracing through both sire and dam to the best blood of England; and having in a few lines of descent 17 distinct crosses of the celebrated Godolphin Arabian.
For particulars see bills and apply to the subscriber, six miles from Frankfort, on the Georgetown pike.
WILLIAM J. LEWIS.
mar 5 w&twtf.

The Great Premium Jack, TUSCARORA!
(formerly the Property of J. H. Saeffer.)
WILL make the present season at my farm, five miles from Lexington, on the Winchester and Lexington turnpike, the most valuable and profitable season of the year. I have Dr. Nicholas Warfield, and will serve Jennets at THIRTY DOLLARS the season, the money to be paid when the jennet is removed, or FIFTY DOLLARS the insurance, to be paid when the jennet is known to be in foal or parted with. Jennets bred by the insurance and losing their foal, may be bred next year free of charge, grain and grass excepted. Grass will be furnished two months free of charge, and after that time $1.50 per month will be charged. And they will be grain fed if desired, on the usual terms. I have two hundred and seventy-five acres of fine grass as is to be found in Kentucky, and convenient lots to feed and foal in, and every care will be taken of jennets, and their colts, sent to this Jack, but no responsibility for accidents and escapes, should they occur. This season has commenced, and will expire the 1st of December.
TUSCARORA is so well known as a Jack of unsurpassed merit, that I deem a lengthy description of him unnecessary. It is confidently believed that he is the best aged Jack in Kentucky, and this has been tested in the different rings of the Agricultural Fairs of the State before the best judges. He has taken premiums at all the Fairs, viz: at Lexington, Paris, Winchester, the State Fair, and has from a colt up been beaten but twice. His blood, size, form, and appearance, can be seen in the head of all animals of his class in the United States.

Description and Pedigree.
TUSCARORA was 5 years old the 20th of June last, is 16 hands high, a beautiful black; mealy nose, is in fine health, with more smooth, good action than any large Jack I have ever seen.
He was sired by Mammoth Warrior, (the Rob Smith Jack), Mammoth Warrior was by Young & Everett's imported Mammoth, and out of a Warrior jennet. Tuscarora's dam, Isabella, was by Tippecanoe, gr. dam by Mohican, (a Jack purchased in New York by Francis Shannon, Esq., and brought to Kentucky), a descendant of the Royal Gift, gr. dam by Achilles, he imported by the Hon. Henry Clay. ISAAC O. ROBINSON.
Fayette county, mar 11 w&twtf.

The Premium Jack, SHAKESPEARE,
WILL MAKE THE PRESENT SEASON at the stables of Mrs. E. Nash, 4 miles south of Versailles, on the turnpike to McCann's Ferry, 6 miles from said ferry, at THIRTY DOLLARS to insure a colt. Persons wishing a convenient insurance for Jack or Jennet colts, can, by the addition of $10 in the former or the deduction of $5 in the latter, be accommodated. Persons not stipulating the terms at the time of sending their jennets, will be charged the insurance price. Persons having their colts before foaling time, can be bred next season free of charge. Jennets will be pastured gratis, or grain fed on reasonable terms.
He has proven himself a sure foal getter, and his colts are not surpassed by any Jack's colts in the country. He has formerly stood at $40, but owing to the hard times is reduced thus low.
Description and Pedigree.
SHAKESPEARE will be 5 years old next June, is jet black, with mealy nose, is full 16 hands high, with superior bone, style, and action. He has taken four or five first premiums at the different fairs.
He was sired by the celebrated Promise, and out of a Mammoth Jennet; his granddam by Jack Downing, gr. dam by Mountain Leader, out of an imported jennet.

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables, Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners in Kentucky.
By RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or criminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.
Every necessary form which a justice of the peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having business with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties are so fully and clearly explained, and his well known accuracy and success will commend it to the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.
The work contains six hundred and fifty octavo pages, is printed on fine paper, and with large, clear type, and bound in the very best style. Price, $4.00.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

FRIDAY, April 5th, 1861.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock A. M. The reading of the Journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

Mr. JOHNSON offered a resolution to appoint a committee to inform the H. R. that the Senate having completed its legislative business is now ready to adjourn: carried.

Messrs. JOHNSON, PENNEBAKER, and GIBSON were appointed said committee.

The following complimentary resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be and they are hereby tendered to G. W. Lewis, Reporter for the Daily Commonwealth, for the honest, faithful, and disinterested discharge of his duties.

Resolved, That the Speaker appoint a committee of three, to act in connection with a like committee of the House of Representatives, to inform the Governor that having completed their legislative business, they are now ready to adjourn.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate, and they are hereby tendered to Morgan B. Chinn, for the faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties as Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be, and they are hereby tendered to the pages of this Senate, for the prompt and efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties of their offices.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be tendered to the Clerks of the city of Frankfort, for attending its daily meetings, and opening the same with prayer.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be tendered to Thomas Pierce, for the faithful and efficient manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be, and they are hereby tendered to Samuel C. Sayers, Reporter for the Daily Yeoman, for the honest, faithful, and impartial discharge of his duties.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Speaker of the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate have completed their legislative duties, and are now ready to adjourn.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be tendered to the Clerk and Assistant Clerk of the Senate, for the able, efficient, and polite manner in which they have discharged the duties of their offices.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be given to John J. Roberts, Clerk of the Committee on Enrollments, for the faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Senate be given to Hon. Wm. C. Gillis, Chairman of the Committee on Enrollments, for the prompt and efficient manner in which he has discharged the very arduous and laborious duties of his office.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be, and they are hereby tendered to the Hon. Thos. F. Porter, for the able, dignified, and impartial manner in which he has presided over the Senate during the present session, and for his uniform courtesy to the members of this body.

A message was received from the H. R. by Mr. TEVIS, informing the Senate that the House had completed its legislative business and was now ready to adjourn, and had appointed a committee to act with a committee of the Senate to inform the Governor that the General Assembly was now ready to adjourn, and know of him if he had any further communications to make to them.

The SPEAKER appointed Messrs. JOHNSON, IRVAN, and COSBY the committee on the part of the Senate to wait on the Governor.

ENROLLMENTS.

Mr. GILLIS, from the committee on Enrollments, reported a number of bills correctly enrolled, which the SPEAKER signed, and they were delivered to the committee to be presented to the Governor for his approval and signature.

A message was received from the Governor, announcing his approval of sundry bills.

Mr. JOHNSON, from the committee to wait on the Governor, reported that the Governor had no further communication to make.

A message was sent to the House of Representatives that the Senate was ready to adjourn.

The SPEAKER delivered the following valedictory address:

EXTENSION OF SESSIONS. The hour fixed by the joint action of both branches of the Legislature for final adjournment, is now at hand.

Before parting, I trust you will excuse me if I avail myself of this opportunity of again expressing to you my heartfelt thanks for your unwearied kindness and courtesy to me. What an immense success may have attended my efforts to discharge the duties imposed upon me by the responsible position in which you placed me, is attributable more to that kindness and courtesy than to any superior qualifications that I possess for such a place.

After anxious deliberations for weeks, the result of which will, I hope, prove a blessing to us and to our race by bringing back again all the scattered fragments of this once glorious Union in one common bond of interest and affection, we are about to separate, each one to return to his family and people.

In the course of events we may not meet again, and in this, to me, most solemn moment, it is with pain that I now say to each one of you, and to the officers of this Senate who have so faithfully and patiently discharged their duties—farewell. May God's blessings be with you.

I now declare this Senate adjourned sine die. And then the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, April 5th, 1861.

The House met at 6 o'clock A. M. The reading of the Journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

Mr. UNDERWOOD offered the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz:

Resolved, That this House tenders to the Hon. D. Meriwether, the Speaker, their thanks for the diligence, impartiality, and ability with which he has discharged his duties as Speaker of the Chair, and our best wishes for his future happiness.

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be tendered to the Clerk and other officers of the House, for the diligence and ability with which they have discharged their several duties.

Mr. CARLISLE offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be, and they are hereby tendered, to Jno. M. Todd, Reporter for the Commonwealth, and W. D. Robertson, Reporter for the Yeoman, for their uniform courtesy and politeness to the members and officers, and for the accurate and impartial manner in which they have reported the proceedings of this House.

MOTION.

On motion, Messrs. TEVIS, H. H. SMITH, and LEACH, were appointed a committee, to act in conjunction with one from the Senate to wait upon the Governor and learn whether he had any further communications to present; if not, the two Houses were ready to adjourn sine die.

ENROLLMENTS.

Mr. S. JOHNSON reported sundry bills correctly enrolled.

REPORT.

Mr. TEVIS, from the committee appointed to wait on the Governor, reported that they had performed that duty, and were informed that his Excellency had no further communication to make.

Mr. GOODLOE moved the House adjourn: adopted.

Before announcing the vote, Mr. SPEAKER said:

After acknowledging with profound thanks the uniform kindness and indulgence extended to me by members of this House, and wishing all and each of you much happiness and prosperity, I declare the House adjourned without day.

RICHMOND, Va., April 4.

At 12 o'clock the debate terminated in the Convention, and after an ineffectual effort by Mr. Wise to extend the time for explaining the amendment, the committee of the Whole proceeded to vote on the third resolution, which opposes the formation of geographical or sectional parties in respect to federal politics, and it was adopted.

The fourth resolution was taken up. On motion of Mr. Wise, it was amended by inserting the words "several States," in lieu of "the United States," making it declare that the territories constitute a trust to be administered for the common benefit of the several States. Yeas 68, nays 66.

Two other verbal amendments were offered by Mr. Wise and agreed to.

Mr. Morton moved to amend by striking out the last sentence, viz: If the equal admission of slave and free labor into any Territory excites unfriendly conflict between the two systems, a fair partition of the Territories ought to be made, and each system protected within the limit assigned by the laws necessary to its proper development. Lost—yeas 38, nays 91.

Pending further consideration of the resolutions a recess was taken.

New York, April 4.

A special dispatch to the Commercial says that Lincoln has arrived at Washington. He states that great preparations are being made to attack Fort Pickens, and troops are being drilled daily by southern officers. An attack is momentarily expected.

A special dispatch to the Times, says the batteries on Morris Island fired an unknown number of shots last night, for not displaying her colors. Major Anderson immediately dispatched a messenger to Governor Pickens for explanations. The vessel put out to sea.

New York, April 4.

Great activity prevails at the Brooklyn navy yard, and it is reported that several vessels of war are expected to sail to-night, orders having been received from Washington to that effect. Their destination is unknown.

A special dispatch to the Post says it is rumored that the southern commissioners have demanded the immediate evacuation of Fort Sumter and Pickens.

Orders have been sent for every naval vessel to be put into immediate commission. The administration is determined to reinforce Fort Pickens at all hazards.

A special dispatch to the Commercial says that the Secretary of the Interior has directed that no more land warrants be issued from the Pension office to citizens of the seceded States.

E. DeLoach was appointed and took the oath of office as District Attorney of New York, to-day, vice Roosevelt.

New Orleans, April 4.

It is reported that the Brooklyn arrived off Pensacola on the 31st ult.

Indiana advises state that the Mohawk, Star of the West and Empire City were lying outside of Pass Cavallo bar, waiting for troops.

The Fashion has been chartered by the Federal Government for the transportation of troops from Indianapolis to Pass Cavallo bar.

Ten companies are expected from San Antonio.

Richmond, Va., April 4.

A Federal officer, who was in New Orleans, was sent by his government at about the time of the secession of Texas, and remained there, it is suspected, for the purpose of giving information. The War Department of the Confederate States has a spy upon him. He is believed to be a Pennsylvanian.

Washington, April 4.

The following appointments have been made: L. Webb, Surveyor at Fort, to John Young, Collector at Sandusky, O.; David Morgan, Postmaster at Minneapolis, Minn.; Edwin Combes, Postmaster at Cleveland; Samuel Wood, Collector at Paso del Norte, New Mexico.

Washington, April 4.

Extreme solicitude is manifested everywhere concerning Fort Sumter and Pickens. Fears are expressed that a collision will be precipitated.

Information is received that Lieutenant Talbot left Charleston to-day, with important dispatches for Washington.

Washington, April 4.

The Gulf Squadron is to be commanded by Capt. Stringham. The reasons for the increase of the naval force in that quarter are conjectural. The extreme caution that characterizes the Administration in this, as well as on other military subjects, occasions many warlike rumors.

Charleston, April 4.

Lieuts. Talbot and Snowden have just reached this city with a flag of truce. They are now in consultation with Gen. Pickens. Nothing has transpired as to their mission.

Richmond, April 4.

The Convention adjourned sine die.

New York, April 5.

Fort Lafayette, in this harbor, has been garrisoned. Soldiers from Governor's Island will be moved to Fort Hamilton to-day to embark thence on steamers for ports unascertained.

At the navy yard and all the army departments great activity and bustle prevails, and laborers are working day and night at the former on war vessels. Large number of naval and army officers are continually arriving and reporting themselves for duty.

[Special Dispatch to the Herald.]

Charleston, April 4.—Charleston has to-day been in a state of excitement unequalled since the first secession movement. A crisis is at hand. The appearance of a schooner off the harbor last evening, and her attempt to pass the batteries here, being fired into, and her subsequent mysterious disappearance, have aroused apprehensions of the most serious character. The military leaders have been unusually active all day, and members of the Convention, now in session, belonging to the several fortifications, have been ordered to their several stations. A thousand rumors are in circulation, the principal of which indicates that Fort Sumter will be attacked in the course of a few days, and that the attack will be made from the forts. Maj. Anderson will soon surrender in self defense, though it is believed that an attempt will seriously be made at reinforcement. Two companies left the arsenal to-night for Savannah.

Later advices are understood to have been received from Montgomery ordering further supplies for Maj. Anderson to be cut off. No further communication between the post and federal authorities. The danger is imminent, and the members of the Convention here are expecting a conflict before Saturday.

The Times' Washington despatch says the revenue laws will be enforced in Louisiana.

No visitors are admitted to the War Department to-day.

The representatives of the great powers have unofficially expressed a desire that the Union should be maintained.

New York, April 5.

The Government has chartered the steamers Baltic and Ariel. They will carry troops under sealed orders. The Baltic will carry Capt. Barry's company of flying artillery, ninety men, and the Ariel seven or eight companies of infantry and marine.

The frigate Powhatan goes to sea to-morrow morning, fully equipped and provisioned, and will probably take three companies of troops.

The impression at the Navy Yard is that Fort Sumter and Pickens are to be reinforced.

A company of one hundred men on Governor's Island have received marching orders, and others will speedily follow. There are over twenty-six hundred troops at the different stations in this port.

The Post says it is rumored that Government agents, who were sent to England and France, have returned and report that they will set their faces against the Southern Confederacy and in no manner recognize it, and that the President and Cabinet are determined to take immediate and vigorous measures to enforce existing laws at all hazards.

The Commercial says a committee of leading Virginia politicians have had an interview with the President and Secretary of State, and were assured most positively that the President contemplated no hostile movement, and should not attempt to collect the revenue for the simple reason that Congress had withheld the power from him to do it.

The steamer Atlantic has also been chartered and cleared for Brazil this afternoon, with provisions and stores, and property of the Government.

The Harriet Lane is lying in the Bay in consequence of information given Capt. Faunce by the Collector, which may result in the seizure of vessels bound to the coast of Africa.

A leading banking house in Wall street, it is said, has been detected in a daring attempt to swindle, by means of forged Virginia bonds. It is believed that a large amount of forged bonds have been thrown upon the market. The parties implicated declare themselves Virginians. An investigation is progressing.

Superintendent Kennedy still receives demands of the census marshals in the seceded States, for payment of their services. His regular reply is, that the applicants will be paid out of stolen Government funds, whenever southern officials see fit to recognize the drafts of the Federal Treasurer.

A special dispatch to the Post says the rumor is that the Pawnee goes to Charleston. The excitement hourly grows more intense. All sorts of conjectures are afloat as to the points where the first blow will be struck.

Leading Republican members express the opinion that an extra session of Congress will soon be called.

The Express says it is supposed, in well-informed quarters, that Texas is the point where the troops will be landed, and the request of Gov. Houston, to repel the Indians.

New York, April 5.

The World's despatch says many consider the naval preparations now going on as intended for a demonstration on Cuban Point, while others contend that the revenue is to be collected at all southern ports. Also, that Commissioner Crawford has been informed by authority that it is intended against the South.

The Texas troops have been ordered South again.

Governor Morton of Indiana and Washburn of Maine have had a long interview with the President, urging the holding of all forts at the South and the speedy adoption of a definite policy.

Capt. Reynolds, of Texas, denies he has joined the rebels, but that large sums of money have been expended in the purchase of arms by northern States immediately on our border, and that certain southern States have passed ordinances of secession, and now defy the authority of the General Government, and have, in newspaper reports true, presumed to commence on the great Mississippi river. Why, then, should Kentucky remain inactive—not that we would coerce any State, or place the State in a warlike attitude, but to be ready for defense against enemies from any quarter who may presume to invade our soil or threaten our liberties. We are inland, a breakwater, a mediator between the two extremes of our once united and happy country. These extremes are inconsiderate, and even now threaten a collision of arms. It behooves us, then, to organize, that we may be ready to resist coercion as effectually as we now earnestly protest against such a course.

Gentlemen, again you must allow me to tender to you my unfeigned thanks for this expression of your confidence, which I shall ever cherish as the fondest recollection of my life.

The exercises throughout were witnessed and enjoyed by a large concourse of citizens. We have never participated in a more heartfelt expression of gratitude to a public servant, and all who witnessed the demonstration were impressed with the feeling that the sentiment of gratitude was earnest and mutual.

Becky Wilson's Courtship.

"Oh, now, Becky, do tell us all about it," see the galls.

Becky hadn't been married more than a month, and hadn't got over her bashfulness yet.

"What was it?" see she.

"Well, 'bout your courtship," see the galls.

"Shaw," see she, "turnin' away her face and blushin' dreadful; 'you'd better tell your own courtships yourselves, I reckon."

"Yes, but none of us ever had any bows, Becky, and you a married woman. Come now, do tell us all about it. I love to hear about courtin' so much!" says Detsy Bowers.

"Oh, yes, Becky, do tell us."

"Well," see Becky, "after a great deal of blushin' and twistin' about, 'I'll tell you how it was, if that'll satisfy you."

"Well, now," see the galls, "all gettin' round her so they could hear good."

"John, he come to our house to see me," see she, "turnin' away her head, and kind o' lookin' down sideways under her arm. 'Fool!' he'd better go to see hisself, I reckon. 'Gracious knows I didn't care none for him, I reckon."

"Well," see the galls.

"John, he said he loved me. 'Fool! I better love hisself, I reckon."

"Oh, that's so funny," see the galls; "go on."

"Shaw," see Becky, "I won't tell no more."

"Oh, yes, do—do Becky," see the galls.

"Well, then, John, he ax'd me if I wouldn't have him. 'Hem, fool! better have hisself, I reckon."

"Then what did you say?"

"Hem! I never said nothin'. 'Gracious knows, he wasn't gwine to get nothin' out of me."

"Oh, oh," see the galls—"do go on Becky."

"Then, John, he ax'd mother if he mightn't have me. 'Fool! better have hisself, I reckon."

"Well," see the galls.

"Well, mother, she got o' frustrated, and see 'em. 'Fool! she'd better mind her own business, I reckon."

"And what then?"

"Then, John, he ax'd daddy if he mightn't have me, and daddy, he got kind o' frustrated too, and said yes, too."

"That's the sort o' daddies," see the galls, "rubbin' their hands."

"Then, mammy, she went to town and got a white frock for me, and white gloves to put on my hands, for me to be married to John. 'Hem, fool! she better be married to him herself, I reckon."

"Well," see the galls, "go on, Becky."

"Shaw, now, I ain't gwine to tell you no more about it, so I ain't."

"Oh, yes, Becky, do go on. Oh, do tell us all about it, Becky, that's a good soul."

"Well, honey, the preacher-man, he cum to our house, and a whole heap of people to marry me. 'Fool! they great deal better staid at home, I reckon. 'Gracious knows, I didn't want to see 'em."

"Never mind, Becky, go on."

"Well, then, John, he cum to take me up to the preacher-man, for to be married. 'Fool! I never did feel so mad—and then—oh, shaw, galls, I can't tell any more."

"Oh, yes, go on, Becky."

"Well, then, the preacher-man, he ax'd me if I would have John to be my lawful husband. 'Hem, fool! better have him hisself, I reckon. And then—shaw, galls, I won't tell any more!"

"Oh, do, Becky. Now you're just comin' to the interestin' part. Oh, do tell us the rest, Becky."

"Well, I never said nothin', and the preacher-man, he said I must have John to be my husband, when he was sick and when he was well, and when he was better or worse, and rich or poor, and love him, and stick to him, and mind him; and the Lord knows what a heap of other things he said, people what he put together; it was agin the laws for any body to take apart; and so I was married, hard and fast, the first thing I knowed, to John."

"Well, what then, Becky?" see the galls, "gettin' more and more interested in all this time."

"Why, then, the preacher-man, he went home, and then all the fellers cum a pullin' and haulin' me, and kessin' me, and squeeze me, and sich other carryins on as they did cut up. 'Fool! they great deal better kised their own selves, I reckon."

"Go on, Becky—tell us all about it!" see the galls.

"Well, then, after they all went away, John, he—oh, shaw!" see she, "I ain't gwine to tell you no more word more! When you get married, yourselves you'll know all about it, I reckon!"

"We would call the attention of those suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, &c., to an advertisement in another column of this paper, of an important discovery for the cure of those diseases, now introduced for the first time to the American public by Messrs. Leeds, Gilmore & Co., of New York."

your batations, it is impossible that the State Guard should ever be found otherwise engaged than defending national honor and true to the best interest of your State.

It was also my painful necessity to defend your organic law against the charge of despotism. It was urged that it was a disgrace to the statute books; was infamous. Wholesale denunciations like these were not difficult to meet and successfully refute. It required but little labor and patience to demonstrate to every unprejudiced mind that the system under which you are organized was equal to, if not superior to that of any other State organization in the United States. During the discussion I was asked why I wished to organize the militia, and who I wanted to fight, to which I replied that you were men of peace, that you desired no hostilities. That the organization was for the purpose of training, to keep alive in the hearts of the young men that martial spirit for which our fathers were so justly celebrated, and if Kentucky were to be called upon to meet the enemies of our common country, that our ranks, might sustain the high reputation won by Kentuckians upon so many bloody fields. That the banners received from the fair hands of mothers and sisters, and borne by them, would be returned, if pierced by a thousand balls, hallowed and rendered many times more precious by the blood of the brave hearts stilled in death in their defense.

You also have an appropriation of money to erect at Frankfort an arsenal, to repair the arms of the State now rusting and useless, and to keep in repair arms as they may be returned to the State, and to purchase a limited quantity of camp equipment to shelter and protect you while you occupy the camp of instruction. These were absolutely necessary, and sufficiently limited to satisfy the most rigid economy.

To others I said to myself you are indebted for a steady and unwavering advocacy of the law organizing the Kentucky State Guard—gentlemen who believed as I did, that in times like these in which we are now thrown the organization of the Kentucky militia was of the first importance. We cannot be ignorant of the fact that the organization, but that large sums of money have been expended in the purchase of arms by northern States immediately on our border, and that certain southern States have passed ordinances of secession, and now defy the authority of the General Government, and have, in newspaper reports true, presumed to commence on the great Mississippi river. Why, then, should Kentucky remain inactive—not that we would coerce any State, or place the State in a warlike attitude, but to be ready for defense against enemies from any quarter who may presume to invade our soil or threaten our liberties. # SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN, TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the office of C. A. Clark, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this Gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOOMERS, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, STY, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE SKIN, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR THE DOWDY DRESS, DEBILITY, RHEUMATISM AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE ON ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many ranking disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the tainted blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgative of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO. LOWELL, MASS.

Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use, and its medicinal virtues are well known to all, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR THE CURE OF Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Diaper Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for the cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best and there is for them, and they should have it.

All our Remedies are For sale by J. M. MILLS and W. H. AVERILL, Frankfort, and by all Druggists.
